The Virgin Mary had a baby boy

West-Indisch kerstlied

arr. Jan Coeck

This musical score is for a West-Indisch kerstlied (Christmas carol) titled 'The Virgin Mary had a baby boy', arranged by Jan Coeck. The score is written for a full orchestra and a choir. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats) and the time signature is common time (C). The score is divided into four systems. The first system includes staves for Flute, Oboe, Bassoon, and a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass). The second system continues the choir parts. The third system includes staves for Violin I and II, Viola, Violoncello, and Contrabass. The fourth system continues the orchestral parts. The Flute part features a melodic line with triplets in the first two measures. The Oboe and Bassoon parts have rests in the first two measures, followed by a melodic line in the third measure. The choir parts have rests throughout the first two measures. The violin and viola parts play a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The violoncello and contrabass parts play a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The score is written in a standard musical notation style with a clear layout and a professional appearance.
