

To my Wife

- for Ingrid's 40th Birthday -

M.: Martin Sloommaekers
L.: William Ernest Henley

Calm and gentle ♩ = 63

mp Take, take dear, my lit - tle sheaf of songs, mf Take, —

mp Take, take dear, my lit - tle sheaf of songs, — mf Take, —

mp Take, take dear, — my lit - tle sheaf of songs,

mp Take, take dear, — my lit - tle sheaf of songs,

5

— dear, my lit - tle sheaf, my lit - tle sheaf of songs,

— dear, my lit - tle sheaf, my lit - tle sheaf of songs,

mf Take, dear, my lit - tle sheaf, my lit - tle sheaf of songs, — p For,

mf Take, dear, my lit - tle sheaf, my lit - tle sheaf of songs, — p For, all was young, They will re - call Those oth - ers, lived...

19

all was young, They will re - call Those oth - ers, lived...

sing - ing, They will re - call, They

sing - ing, They will re - call, They 22

f D.C. al Coda

... but left un - sung The best of all.

... but left un - sung The best of all.

will re - call, re - call The best of all.

will re - call, re - call The best of all.

26

molto rallentando

you; be - longs on - ly to you.

you; be - longs on - ly to you.

you; be - longs on - ly to you.

you; be - longs on - ly to you.